

Go abroad and develop yourself with Abroad Consulting in Madrid!

Sun, tapas bars, paella, Mediterranean architecture, loud speaking but super affectionate locals, flamenco dancing... what other country could that be than Spain. And in the very center of all this getting-the-holiday-feels country we find Madrid! Madrid is not only Spain's literal center (its geographical center can be found at in the middle of Madrid's Puerta del Sol square), but also Spain's center of life. Being the third biggest city in the EU, Madrid hosts head offices of the vast majority of major Spanish companies. But work is not all, and the city is perfect for enjoying the Spanish way of life: from relaxing in the sun in the Buen Retiro park and having tapas in a cute little bar on a side street to visiting one of its famous art museums and enjoying a Real (or Atlético de) Madrid soccer game!
